

MaineHealth Office of Interprofessional Education Presents:

Interprofessional Innovation in Education (IIEF) Curriculum Fall 2022

Please join us for some or all of these sessions this Fall.
We strongly encourage those who may be applying for the 2023 cycle of IIEF grants to attend.

The sessions are open to all MaineHealth care team members of any profession, and will be held over Zoom. Please register ahead for the sessions.

Session 1:

What is innovation in education? October 5, Wed, 7-8 am

Register for this session here

Define innovation in education
Describe hot topics in health professions education
Determine and describe the educational gap

Session 2:

Best evidence and practices in health professions education October 19, Wed,
7-8 am

Register for this session here

Describe current topics in learning science
Distinguish myths and debunked approaches
Appraise health professions education literature: top journals, good resources

Session 3:

Assessing the impact of health professions education November 2, Wed 7-8
am

Register here for this session here

Explain the Kirkpatrick model
Compare qualitative versus quantitative approaches
Develop surveys: design, challenges, appropriateness

Session 4:

Putting together a great grant package November 16, Wed, 7-8am

Register for this session here

Apply tips for a successful application
Analyze components of a budget
Discriminate pitfalls to avoid

Questions or Need Help Registering?